2010 NATICK BIKE WEEK

May 15th ~ May 23rd
Saturday through Sunday

Elm Bank Kids Ride

Saturday, May 15th - 4 - 4:30pm

Meet at Elm Bank Reservation
Bring your kids & bikes for an easy ride along the wooded carriage paths of Elm Bank.

Contact: Sue Geiser (508) 647-3713

Basic Bicycle Maintenance

Monday, May 17th - 6:30 - 7:30pm

Meet at Landry's Bicycles, Natick
Co-sponsored by Landry's Bicycles and the Natick Bicycle & Pedestrian Advisory Committee. Ken McLean, Landry's technical director, will present a program on basic bike maintenance, followed by Q&As. Just bring yourself, not your bike. FREE

Contact: Mark Gray (508) 655-1990 ext. 7

Henry Wilson History Bike Ride

Tuesday, May 18th - 6:30 - 8pm

Meet at the Gazebo on Natick Common.
Visit our hometown hero, U.S. Vice President Henry Wilson—his home, the “Ten-Footer” in which he began his shoe-making business, and his perplexing grave site in Old Dell Park Cemetery. Plus, of course, a look at the new Henry Wilson History Trail.

Contact: Dick and Jill Miller (508) 653-6136

Landry's Bicycle Group Ride

Wednesday, May 19th - 6:15 - 7:45pm

Meet at Landry's Bicycles, Natick
Wednesday evenings, Landry's offers group bike rides in three lengths & speeds to fit varying abilities. For Bike Week, the Natick Bicycle and Pedestrian Advisory Committee joins Landry's 18-mile loop and invites you to do so, too!

Meet at the Gazebo on Natick Common.
Did you miss Maureen Sullivan's walking tour on April 17th? Did you enjoy it, and want to try one on bikes? Grab your helmet & come along!
